Headline:
Fine at first, showery rain later.

Today:
A fine start with sunny spells. Becoming cloudier from western parts into the afternoon, with occasional rain punctuated by sporadic heavy showers then spreading east to all parts by the end of the day. Light winds throughout. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
Largely cloudy with patchy light rain interspersed in places by further heavy showers, with these more likely in the south and east. Mild with light winds. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Monday:
Rather cloudy, with showery rain developing into heavier and locally prolonged showers, with a risk of slow-moving torrential downpours and thunder. Feeling humid, with light winds. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Scattered sharp showers possible on Tuesday, but overall these should be fewer and lighter than on Monday. Conditions turning more settled from midweek with more in the way of sunshine.
